Must See Across the USA

by Manish Vora

If gyms and yoga studios overflow after the new year, why shouldn't museums and galleries? Check out this month's must-see shows in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Miami, Boston and Chicago. Alternately, those of you with the time and money can just enroll in Gagosian's Damien Hirst Spot Challenge and book your around-the-world ticket to all eleven Gagosian galleries.

Los Angeles

Tired of hearing about artists abandoning their high-priced Brooklyn studios for the lush life in LA? We sure are, but the gallery scene continues to make LA more enticing. This month we're digging the solos shows for Tim Bavington, Glenn Kaino, Alan Michael, Daniel Richter, and Banks Violette.
