

Shows: “Construct” at Mark Moore Gallery (7/16)

July 16th, 2011 — by Chris Stanton in Shows, sculpture

Construct,” opening tonight at Mark Moore Gallery in Culver City, features work by Kiel Johnson and Cordy Ryman in an exhibition of each artist’s unique talents. Johnson (above) meticulously and fantastically builds and drafts gadgets that we are all familiar with, often using simple materials like cardboard, wood and tape for his constructions. Ryman (below) fabricates sculptural paintings and installations that explore the idea of environment as art. Stop by for the opening reception tonight (July 16) from 6-8 pm, and check out more images on the gallery web site.

Mark Mark Moore Gallery: 5790 Washington Blvd., Culver City, CA 90232.
