

Slideshow: The Best Dressed Of The Art World

August 8, 2012

Allison Schulnik

Los Angeles-based artist Allison Schulnik first caught our eye at the Armory Show, where her eclectic mix of vintage separates put her in our street style slide show. The artist's obsession with cats (they are often the subjects of her paintings and sculptures) carries into her funky bohemian clothing and accessory choices, as she discussed when she was the subject of our Tastemaker column.
