

SHOOTING GALLERY / WHITE WALLS - GAUNTLET - CAMPFIRE BACK TO THE PICTURE - 2ND FLOOR PROJECTS

Published: April 13, 2013

[2nd Floor Projects]: Christopher Russell, Camille Roy.

Comment by AB: Christopher Russell tells me that a few years back, he made a number of sojourns to a certain public park where men engage in varying degrees of assignation and conviviality, and documented the activities with a camera concealed behind a hole in his pants. The results range from murky and mysterious to woody and romantic. Also on display are several abstract works with representational flourishes. Check it out.
